The users can make the Alien to jump by pressing the space. The longer the users pressing the space key, the larger the jumping force applied to the alien. If the alien lands its front stage successfully, the score will increase 1. Also the alien cannot stop at the current stage for more than 7s because when the stage is spawned it will be destroyed automatically after 7s.